

Town of Wilbraham

TOWN MAP

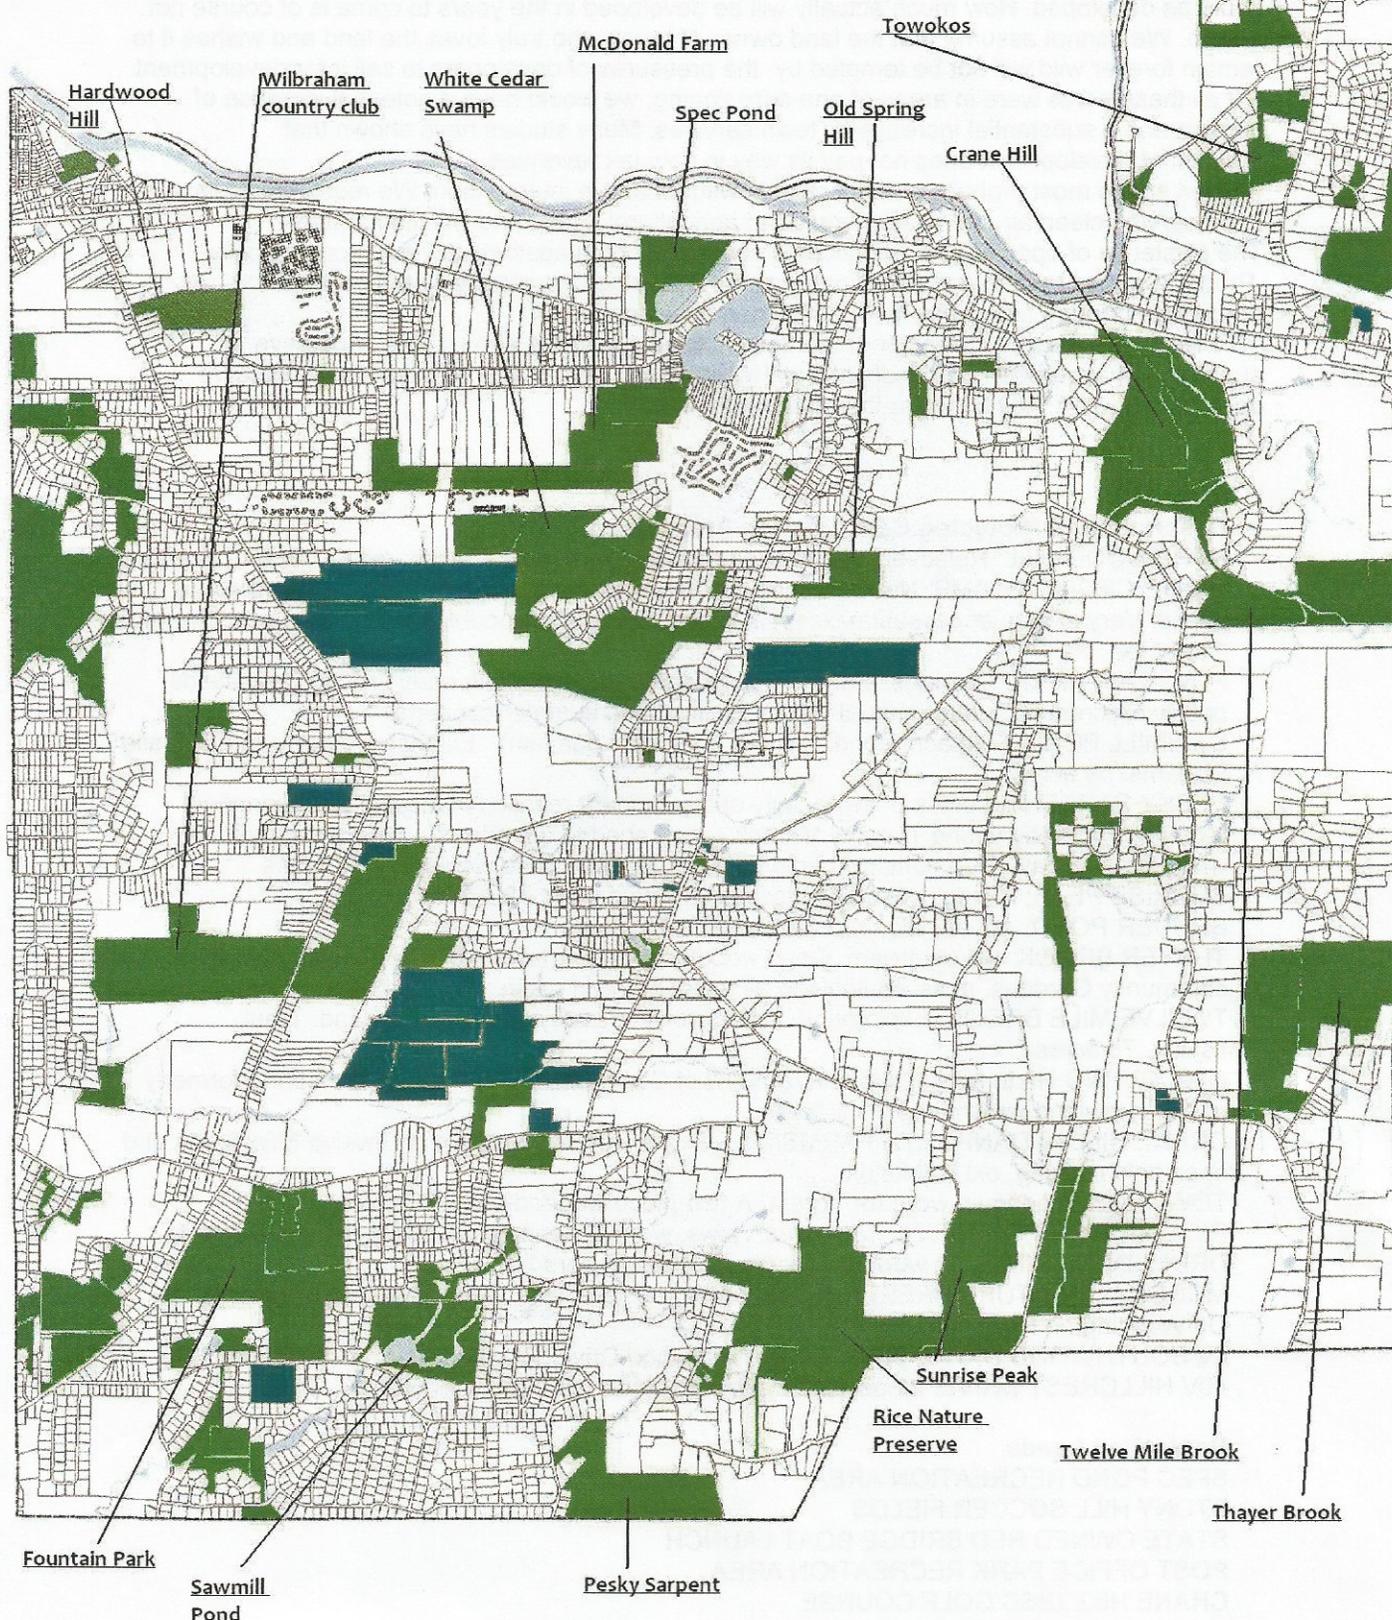

May, 2010
1 inch = 1,149 feet

KEY

- open space, conservation, recreation, hiking
- schools, municipal, cemetery

Description of Protected Conservation Areas

HARDWOOD HILL: Relatively open second growth hardwood. Gently, rolling terrain. 30 acres

WHITE CEDAR SWAMP: Nowhere else is a White Cedar Swamp of this size found so far inland. Very dense; impassable except in winter. Delightful woodland trails around the swamp. 185 acres

FOUNTAIN PARK: Former site of State Pheasant farm, closed in early 1980s. Open fields, passive recreation, site of annual Peach Festival and summer concerts.

SAWMILL POND: Five acre pond. Fishing (bass and pan fish). Extensive alder swamp. Trails Streams. 59 acres.

PESKY SARPENT: Locale of the vicinity of the incident recalled in the Ballard Springfield Mountain whereby young Timothy Merrick succumbed to the bite of a "pesky serpent" while mowing hay. Area consists of old fields, thickets, hillside woodland. 70 acres

SUNRISE PEAK: Hiking, woodland discoveries. Fine view. 72 acres.

BRUER POND: Aquatic life; bird watching. 4 1/2 acres

THAYER BROOK: Small stream, Open woodland. Over-grown old fields. Location of the community Gardens. plots available to all residents. Old cabin. 166 1/2 acres.

TWELVE MILE BROOK: Exploration in overgrown meadows and bottom land. Trout fishing. 75 acres

OLD SPRING HILL: Hillside woodland. View of Connecticut River valley. Old spring formerly used for lowland water supply. 15 acres.

CRANE HILL @ DANFORTH FARMS/MILL POND AREA: Old dam on Twelve Mile Brook and open fields, hiking, old ball fields

TOWOKOS: Algonquin word for "forest" A two-piece wooded area. 26 acres

RICE NATURE PRESERVE: 150 acres Views, woods, open fields, hiking trails and wildlife

DRUMLIN ESTATES: 31 woodland acres off Three Rivers Rd

MCDONALD NATURE PRESERVE: 28.8 acres. Open fields, wooded area, hiking trails. Off Washington Road

4V SOUTHWOOD DRIVE: 28 acres off Southwood Drive. Wooded swamp, mixed trees.

40V HILLCREST DRIVE: 21 acres. Adjacent to McDonald Nature Preserve.

Recreation Lands

SPEC POND RECREATION AREA

STONY HILL SOCCER FIELDS

STATE OWNED RED BRIDGE BOAT LAUNCH

POST OFFICE PARK RECREATION AREA

CRANE HILL DISC GOLF COURSE